

SHENANDOAH HERALD
PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY
SHENANDOAH PUBLISHING CO.
WOODSTOCK, VIRGINIA.
Wednesday, Sept. 4, 1878.
Governor Holiday.

It seems there can be no precedent in government without its votaries and followers. Who would have supposed that Governor Holiday, in casting about for a prototype executive, would have fallen upon and adopted Grant? Those who knew Fred. Holiday but as a humble citizen and methodical office lawyer naturally supposed he would be a laborious governor, always in his office, despising red tape and figuring the Commonwealth out of her involvements. But to the disappointment of his friends is not less in this, than at the agility with which he leaped into the arms of the enemies of his State at the first offer of opportunity. Vanity! Vanity! all is Vanity, saith the Preacher. From the movement when Governor Holiday shut himself off from his people in a private palace car, exhibited himself in a grand circus street parade for the first public inauguration of a Virginia Governor, he betrayed the weak point in his armor and became a helpless nursing in the arms of the very lullaby singers, chattering in his ready, open ear.

"Frettest into child in the century O Lady and many both said."

See how elegantly it has all been done this summer! This, the first, summer of the term. One week at Mt. Vernon, one at Lexington, one at Lynchburg, one at Blacksburg, one at White Sulphur, one at Charlottesville, one at Staunton, one at Albemarle, but longest of all, according to the brief announcements of the Richmond papers, he was at a "fashionable watering place in Rockbridge."

Now we freely concede that Virginia would better have no governor than Governor Holiday; but he is still the governor, and in Richmond long enough, and at the right time, to do mischief and damage, and these absences only the better prepare him for the work which the ring associations cut out. For instance, when the Governor was in this county he was observed to speak to but very few men on public matters, and for these he had nothing but epithets and vituperation collected among the nabobs of White Sulphur and other "fashionable watering places." Like John Sherman when he goes to Wall Street to consult with gamblers on American finance, so Gov. Holiday goes to a college faculty or a fashionable watering place to learn how to denounce his constituents as repudiators, communists and agrarians, and to have what small information he had concerning Virginia's fiscal affairs give place to the views of this or the other great financier who amassed wealth as a government contractor during the war, and now has leisure to dispense opinions to small governors of disreputable people in matters concerning their personal honor, state integrity, moral and legal obligations and ability to discharge them.

These are some of the effects of absenteeism on our governor, as observable in a very few minutes of conversation with him, and hence we are more than sorry that the peripatetic Grant should have so deeply impressed his policy and administration hitherto. We had hope that a slight commingling with the people would bring the swimming head of our executive to a dead level, but when he speaks the constituent out of his mouth as an agrarian or communist for the offense of being a greenbacker, or repels him as a repudiator for opposing an enacted fraud, we accept that Ephraim is joined to his idols, Gideon ensnared by the golden ornaments of the Militaries, and that the "fashionable watering places" will exercise the veto power in the Old Dominion for the whole term.

Other and still more humiliating consequences of the Governor's roaming around are remarked in his continuing ignorance of the real situation and condition of Virginia's finances. Gov. Holiday never was a statistician. His taste and pride have been in abstruse metaphysics. But he was always a student, and the very natural inference was that he would carry his industry into the new field of labor in which he coveted employment. In this again we are disappointed. For instance, the Governor says 10 cents increase of taxation will be ample to meet the demands upon our State treasury. How utterly absurd! If it be susceptible of demonstration that 10 cents on an assessment of $223,980, - 771.50 will pay a deficit of over a million of dollars we should be gratified to see it.

It is an idle waste of valuable gubernatorial time to juggle insipid platitudes throughout this portion of the State. Our people know how to protect the honor of Virginia before self-appointed lecturers began their system of instruction. It is equally idle to attempt to bolster up an administration by misrepresenting the real condition of affairs. Almost every man now knows for himself, and besides holding Governor Holiday responsible for what he says and does as their executive, the people of the Valley will now, henceforth and forever, remember his declarations and promises when he came forward as a Valley man for the high and honorable office which they claimed as the due of their section of the State.

One night last week several young men visited the grumpy of Bishop McCloskey, near Louisville, Kentucky, and whilst filling their baskets with grapes were fired upon by the watchman, and one of them, Philip Haag, received wounds from which he died in a few hours. The watchman claims that Haag attempted to take his gun away from him, and it was discharged in the struggle.

Gen. John T. Harris.
The Democratic convention of the Seventh Congressional district of Virginia having declared it inexpedient to make a nomination for Congress, the gentleman whose name heads this article has declared himself for re-election, and although he has several opponents, from information received from reliable sources, we feel assured that his re-election is certain.

Judge Harris has for a number of years represented his district in Congress, and we but express the sentiment of all who have known of his career, in pronouncing him one of the most efficient and intelligent representatives. The position which he has held on important committees of the House is an evidence of the fact that his ability is properly appreciated. No representative has ever been more prompt and energetic in working for the interest of his constituents. His defeat would be a great calamity. — Washington Gazette.

Wheat Crops Abroad.
Mr. Caird's estimate in the London Times is that, although the new crops is fully up to the average, England alone will require 104,000,000 bushels, that the French, on account of a short crop, will be buyers instead of sellers. Letters from Germany show that the wheat crop in Southern Germany has been greatly injured by heavy rains, and a well-informed writer believes that large purchases from this country will be made for German consumption. A cable dispatch states that the crops in Roumania "have been very seriously damaged by recent rains." In Austria, the yield is in average quantity, but inferior in quality, because of rust, and in Hungary the harvest had been interrupted by bad weather. Advice from South Russia promise only "fairly good" crops. Paris advices of August 7 are that the yield is unsatisfactory, being inferior both in quantity and also quality, except in Northern France, and that France may be expected to import 40,000,000 bushels of wheat. Thus all the information at hand gives promise of an unusually large demand for American grain.

GEN. JOSEPH E. JOHNSTON, who has been nominated as the Democratic conservative candidate for Congress in the Richmond Va., district, is in the seventy-second year of his age, having been born in Prince Edward county, Va., February, 1807. He graduated at West Point as a second lieutenant in 1829, and served in Florida against the Seminole Indians, a portion of the time on the staff of Gen. Winfield Scott. In 1837 he resigned his commission to engage in civil engineering, but in 1838 re-entered the service as first lieutenant of topographical engineers and for gallantry in Florida was brevetted captain. At the siege of Vera Cruz, Mexico, he served on engineer duty, was appointed lieutenant colonel of volunteers, at Cerro Gordo received severe wounds and was brevetted major and colonel. He afterwards participated in the battles of Contreras, Churubusco, Molino del Rey, Chapultepec and the final assault on the City of Mexico, being again wounded at the latter place. In 1855 General Johnston was appointed lieutenant of cavalry, and took part in the Utah expedition as inspector general. In 1860 he was appointed quartermaster general with the rank of brigadier general, which position he resigned in 1861 to follow the fortunes of Virginia. His career in the Confederate army, where he rose from the rank of major general to that of a full general, is familiar to the public. He was early wounded in the advance upon McClellan, and was immediately succeeded by Gen. Robert E. Lee, and subsequently, as is known, his military operations were in the Southwest. After the war in the South, with headquarters at Savannah, Ga., and a few months ago made his home in Richmond, Va. Gen. Johnston married a sister of the Hon. Robert M. McLane, of Baltimore, who is an aspirant for the Democratic congressional nomination in the fourth Maryland district.

The Bankrupt law expired last Saturday. The expiration of this law is hard upon the office-holders. New places must be provided for these gentlemen or as soon as the present business is closed up they must retire to the shades of private life. The bankrupt law may have been of some service in large commercial places, but in the country generally the law has proved ruinous to debtors and very injurious to creditors. A man who proposes to break up can no longer lean upon the provisions of this bankrupt law. It is dead, let it not be revived.

A Cheyenne dispatch says the removal of spikes and fish plates a week ago from a rail two miles east of Medicine Bow, near a deep ravine, gave rise to suspicion that it had been done with a view to wreck and rob a train. Deputy Sheriff Wildwoodfield and another named Vincent started on what was believed to be the trail of the would-be robbers, and not returning a large party started in search of them. Last Sunday one of the party returned and stated that the bodies of Wildwoodfield and Vincent were found in a narrow canon of Elk mountain, where they probably met a gang of robbers and were killed.

Quite an excitement was created at Readville, Mass., two years ago, by the mysterious sickness of several of the operatives in a curled hair factory, when three persons are said to have died of a painful disease, thought to be blood poisoning from the hair of diseased animals, principally Siberian horses, many of which die from a peculiar malady. A few days ago another operative died, and another now lies dangerously sick, both evidently cases of the disease of two years ago.

A single item cited by an exchange illustrates the course of trade which is giving us such a balance in our favor against foreign nations. In 1873 we exported only twelve million yards of cotton goods, while last year we exported one hundred and eleven million yards, while there has been a marked decrease in the amount of dress goods imported in these years.

News Items.
The barn of Mr. Beaver, near Rockville, Md., was destroyed by an incendiary fire a few nights since, together with some grain, farming implements, harness and one horse.

At a recent sale of Jersey heifers, in Philadelphia, Col. E. H. Webster, of Hartford county, purchased "Queen" for $400.

Wm. Oldfield, of Hartford county, on twenty-eight acres of land raised an average of thirty-six bushels of wheat to the acre.

On seven acres of land David Hanson, of Hartford county, has taken 600 bushels of tomatoes to the acre.

A twenty-year-old son of Mrs. Jane Wickard, of Cumberland, was run over by a freight train, in that city, Thursday, and killed.

By the explosion of the rusty boiler of a steam thrasher, near Livingston, Minn., Thursday, six men were killed. The thrasher was thrown two hundred feet by the force of the escaping steam.

Another frightful nitro-glycerine explosion, the second within eight days, occurred at Negannee, Mich., Thursday, and three men were instantly blown to pieces, while a fourth was landed on a shelving rock almost unharmed. The killed are Andrew Sullivan, Stephen Day and Stephen Keenan. All were married. Cause unexplained.

Victoria is reported to have said not long ago, when she had given an order to one of her domestics: "I am Queen of Great Britain and Empress of India; but I have not power enough to make one of my servants put coals on the fire if she has been hired to look after the bed-chambers."

A majority of the coroner's jury in the case of Smith, the murdered Jersey City policeman, have returned a verdict accusing Mrs. Jennie Smith, his widow, of the murder, and exonerating George Bennett from complicity in the murder. A minority verdict named Bennett as Mrs. Smith's accomplice.

A special dispatch from Harrisburg says the two tramps who bound and gagged the Balthazor family and stole a large sum of money from the house, at Butler Springs, Cumberland county, about two weeks ago, pleaded guilty in court at Carlisle Tuesday, and were sentenced to nine years in the penitentiary.

Collector Woodcock telegraphs the internal revenue bureau from Nashville that his men were surrounded by two hundred men, led by Campbell Morgan, the notorious moonshiner of Overton county, Tennessee. The revenue officers escaped without making any concessions, and were expected to reach Nashville yesterday. Collector Woodcock announces his intention to organize for work again at once.

If you take one of the new silver half dollars, pour a little muriatic acid on the figure of the eagle, and set it out in the sun for twenty minutes, when you come to look at it it will be gone. And the tramp who took it will be gone also.

The home farm of Dr. T. W. Stone, in Somerset county, 200 acres, has been purchased by Alfonso Lord for $2,250.

Daniel Roddy, of Frederick county, Md., was thrown from a load of hay on Thursday last, and his back broken. He is sixty years of age.

A tornado and hail storm struck the city of Fargo, Dakota Territory, with considerable violence Monday evening last. A number of houses were blown down, several persons badly injured and a half-dozen horses killed. The loss was about $20,000. A severe tornado also passed over a portion of Grundy county, Iowa, Saturday afternoon. Houses were blown down and one man killed by a falling barn and another by the lightning.

At Williamsport, Pa., Friday, Peter Herdic, a former millionaire, filed his petition in voluntary bankruptcy. His schedule of liabilities shows over $1,600,000, with no assets, except such as are held as collateral, attached or have been sold at judicial sale at an enormous sacrifice. To Mr. Herdic's petition is attached a statement in which he traces his financial difficulties directly to the enormous shrinkage in real estate, in stocks and to the financial disasters which have overtaken a very large number of those with whom he has had business transactions since the fall of 1873. At the beginning of the great business depression Mr. Herdic estimates that he owned real estate to the value of over $6,000,000, and stocks, bonds and other securities to the value of over $1,200,000, on which he estimates a shrinkage on the real estate of $5,000,000 and on securities, including stocks and the like, of $900,000, besides which he lost by the failure of others the sum of $1,200,000.

The Manassas Gazette says: On Monday last the barn of Mr. J. C. Colvin, of this county, was struck by lightning and seven hundred and forty bushels of wheat just threshed, wagons and harness, straw and unthreshed grain, and his barn, newly erected, entirely consumed. Mr. Colvin's loss is very serious, as the flames destroyed everything within their reach.

It was Manassas Gazette tramp who, when caught stealing watermelons, said that he was in favor of greenbacks.

On the 25th instant Senator Johnston extended trip in the interest of immigration, proceeding as far as New York city, thence up the Hudson to Albany, thence to Boston and other New England cities. Returning, will visit Philadelphia and other cities and towns in Pennsylvania.

The Catholic Mirror, the official organ of the Archbishop of Baltimore, says editorially and emphatically in this week's issue that "there must be no round dances at any picnic or excursion of any society of Catholics." Heretofore round dances have occasionally been indulged in at such gatherings.

That was a fearful remark we heard in the depot last Tuesday. "This is the way the Southern people get rich—one-half of 'em go away from home, and the other half spend the day at the depot to see them off." — Charlottesville Chronicle.

In Cecil county, on Thursday last, a boy named Hill shot at a rabbit, but struck a little child of John McPadden in the breast and lungs, causing his death in a few hours. Hill was an uncle of the child.

Mr. W. A. Bass, of Halifax, has a cow which gives seven gallons of milk at one milking.

The Southern Scourge.
At New Orleans, Saturday, 234 new cases were reported and 48 deaths, of which latter 20 were of children under 7 years of age. The number of new cases reported at New Orleans yesterday was 260 old deaths 88.

The weather was cloudy and warm, with light showers in the afternoon. Two hundred and fifty-three, applications for relief were made to the Howards. Members of visiting committees report a general spread of the fever, and state that they find it encroaching upon localities heretofore measurably exempt.

REPORTS FROM MEMPHIS.
At Memphis, Saturday, 148 new cases were reported, and 78 deaths. There are 20 cases at the county jail; at Camp Joe Williams 5 or 6 deaths occur daily, and the hospital contains about 25 sick.

Yesterday 104 new cases were reported and 76 deaths. The undertakers are unable to bury the dead fast enough. At Camp Joe Williams 6 deaths occurred. From Brownsville, Tenn., 3 deaths and 17 cases are reported; 4 deaths and 20 cases at Milan, one case at Withe and at Mason one death.

OTHER POINTS.
At Vicksburg 304 new cases and 10 deaths were reported.

Yesterday 8 physicians reported 98 new cases and 25 interments.

Further telegrams confirm reports about yellow fever at Greenville, Miss. Twenty cases are reported.

The fever has appeared in Greenville, Miss. Two deaths have been reported.

At Jackson, Miss., one death from the fever was reported Saturday causing considerable excitement, many persons leaving the city. Superintendent Davis Flannery, of the Western Union Company, has gone to Grenada to receive telegraphic communication. Three operatives there are down with the fever.

At Canton, Miss., there were 29 cases Saturday. At Port Gibson, La., there are 350 cases, and 48 deaths have occurred, and great distress prevails. A refugee died at Mobile, Ala., but there are no other suspicious cases. The fever is reported to have taken out at Hickman, Ky., with three deaths.

The surgeon-general's report for the week just closed shows that at New Orleans there were 1,204 cases and 353 deaths; total so far 2,877 cases and 867 deaths. At Vicksburg 140 deaths; total 800 cases, 189 deaths. Memphis 721 cases, 241 deaths.

A Tragedy at Cumberland.
AN AFFRAY BETWEEN LAWYERS—THREE COOK HUGHEY SHOTS AND KILLS A. HOOTEN BLACKSTON.

CUMBERLAND, Md., August 20.—About 10:30 this morning Thomas Cook Hughey, a lawyer, shot A. Hooten Blackston, also a lawyer, inflicting wounds from which he died in less than fifteen minutes. This morning Blackston, with a client, went into the office of the special attorney of the court and found a second report filed in an equity case in which Hughey was trustee, charging Blackston with having made an offer to withdraw objections made by him to payments from a trust fund, reported previously, if Hughey would pay fifty dollars, and on refusal, with a somewhat similar proposal to Hughey's attorney, employed to argue exceptions taken from the ruling of the court of the same objections. What follows is substantially what was brought out at the coroner's inquest. A few minutes afterward Blackston, with his client, Frank O. Bausch, went to Hughey's office, where Hughey was seated at a desk talking with Wm. Briggs, Esq., Blackston said: "Hughey, I've read the report made by you in that case. What it contains in regard to me is a damned lie. You are a lying son of a bitch, and I am going to show you that." Blackston and his client then rushed into the office and struck Hughey two or three blows on the head with his fist. Hughey, however, did not rise, but remained seated, and Blackston and his client, after striking him, rushed into the street. Just then J. J. and J. A. McHenry, lawyers, attracted by the noise, rushed in, the latter taking Blackston's arm, and with Bruce, trying to persuade him to leave. Hughey, having seen from his pocket a five-barreled Remington, said: "If you advance on me I'll shoot you." To which Blackston replied: "I am not afraid." Hughey responded: "You are a son of a bitch." Before he could complete the sentence Blackston, a powerful young man, threw off Bruce and McHenry and dashed at Hughey, when the latter fired. Blackston struck him two or three times, then they circled and fled, Hughey benefited. Blackston said: "Hughey, I've read the report made by you in that case. What it contains in regard to me is a damned lie. You are a lying son of a bitch, and I am going to show you that." Blackston and his client then rushed into the office and struck Hughey two or three blows on the head with his fist. Hughey, however, did not rise, but remained seated, and Blackston and his client, after striking him, rushed into the street. Just then J. J. and J. A. McHenry, lawyers, attracted by the noise, rushed in, the latter taking Blackston's arm, and with Bruce, trying to persuade him to leave. Hughey, having seen from his pocket a five-barreled Remington, said: "If you advance on me I'll shoot you." To which Blackston replied: "I am not afraid." Hughey responded: "You are a son of a bitch." Before he could complete the sentence Blackston, a powerful young man, threw off Bruce and McHenry and dashed at Hughey, when the latter fired. Blackston struck him two or three times, then they circled and fled, Hughey benefited. Blackston said: "Hughey, I've read the report made by you in that case. What it contains in regard to me is a damned lie. You are a lying son of a bitch, and I am going to show you that." Blackston and his client then rushed into the office and struck Hughey two or three blows on the head with his fist. Hughey, however, did not rise, but remained seated, and Blackston and his client, after striking him, rushed into the street. Just then J. J. and J. A. McHenry, lawyers, attracted by the noise, rushed in, the latter taking Blackston's arm, and with Bruce, trying to persuade him to leave. Hughey, having seen from his pocket a five-barreled Remington, said: "If you advance on me I'll shoot you." To which Blackston replied: "I am not afraid." Hughey responded: "You are a son of a bitch." Before he could complete the sentence Blackston, a powerful young man, threw off Bruce and McHenry and dashed at Hughey, when the latter fired. Blackston struck him two or three times, then they circled and fled, Hughey benefited.

A coroner's inquest was held at night, State Attorney Boyd attending. After hearing the testimony of those who witnessed the tragedy, they returned the following verdict: "That the said A. Hooten Blackston came to his death by a pistol ball fired from a pistol in the hands of Thomas Cook Hughey, whilst said Hughey was defending himself from an assault made upon him by said A. Hooten Blackston."

Hughey was committed to jail for a hearing on the 31 of September. The body of Blackston was removed to his late residence, on West Washington street. He was 32 years of age, a native of Kent county, Md., and a son of David Blackston. He came to Cumberland about ten years ago, and was a leading member of the bar of this city. The deceased leaves a wife, who is a daughter of Judge Pearce, and an infant son. Thomas Cook Hughey is a native of Queen Anne's county, Md., and came here thirteen years ago, has a wife and one child, and is a lawyer in fair practice.

WORCESTER'S POCKET DICTIONARY.
We have just received from the publishers, J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, a copy of this really valuable little volume. Worcester's Quarto Dictionary is the standard authority of the majority of the scholars of America and England, and from it the abridgement now before us has been most carefully compiled. It is a complete reference for the general reader and correspondent, containing, besides a copiously illustrated vocabulary of over eighteen thousand words, lists of foreign words and phrases, abbreviations, rules for spelling, numerical tables, etc. The publishers will mail this work to any address on receipt of the price, 63 cents.

Mr. W. A. Bass, of Halifax, has a cow which gives seven gallons of milk at one milking.

A BOLD BANK ROBBERY IN MISSOURI.—Sedalia, Mo., Aug. 30.—The Sedalia Democrat has the following particulars of the robbery of the Concordia Bank which occurred yesterday: Concordia is a town of about 1,500 inhabitants, in Lafayette county, on the Lexington and St. Louis railroad, thirty miles from Sedalia. The principal banking business of all that part of Lafayette county is done by the Concordia Savings Bank, of which J. A. Lohfener is president and A. Fieker cashier. Yesterday afternoon, about 1:30 o'clock, three men entered the bank. One of them asked the cashier, who was alone in the bank, to change a $10 bill. While he was changing the bill another man jumped over the counter and caught the cashier by the arm and placed one hand over his mouth. They then took what money was in sight, and putting a pistol to the cashier's head told him to open the safe. He did so under fear of his life, and the robbers took all the paper money in the safe between $3,000 and $4,000, refusing to take the silver, of which there was between $2,000 and $3,000 in the bank.

"During the robbery a gentleman named Sademan was near the bank and one of the robbers, who was guarding the door, called him to advance, instead of which he turned and ran. The robbers fired at Sademan, but missed him. They then mounted horses and galloped off in a southerly direction. The whole robbery occupied about ten minutes. They were all mounted on good horses, newly shod. The citizens are in hot pursuit."

HARD TIMES IN INDIA.—We exclaim against the hard times which oppress us, and in all conscience they are hard enough to bear; but our circumstances are easily compared with those of the people of India, where, according to a recent official statement, the number of deaths from the late famine reached the appalling total of 1,550,000! We have not yet been so hard pressed, thank God.

New Advertisements.
A GOOD FERTILIZER!
Pure bred Short Horn Bull calves, high grade West and Essex quality, compare figures, &c. I will enumerate a few leading articles which I offer for sale. Potted Hams, Roast Beef, Pressed Beef, &c. in tin.

Correspondence promptly answered. Address: Lot River P. O., Hardy County, W. Va. J. WARD WOOD. Aug. 21-2mo.

Read and Save Your Money.
Look at the style of that gentleman's head. Do you ask, where did he get that hair? You see that it fits from top to toe, and the man that built it for you must know.

J. L. Butts, you know, is the very man, who does his work as few men can. He is a mechanic and all must know that. That he works good stock, if he tells you so.

At the lowest price by which it lives, where the world's best hairdresser gives. The latest style and a fit for sure. What man in the world could offer more?

Give him a call, he will treat you fair, filling your orders with speed and care, from a neat postage job, just the length of the foot. To the square and straight in a boosted head.

Of course you must know you are getting a good thing. This wonderful man can possibly live, in Woodstock, Va., at the sign of the foot, if it is J. L. Butts, at the sign of the foot, Aug. 21-2mo.

THE MARYLAND FERTILIZERS.
SOLD BY JOHN P. LONAS, Mt. Jackson, Va.

For the purpose of good drilling and quality and good returns, the Maryland Fertilizer cannot be excelled. It has been used here, for a number of years, and farmers who have tried it, are not at all inclined to give it up. It is a good fertilizer and will give you a good crop. It is a good fertilizer and will give you a good crop. It is a good fertilizer and will give you a good crop.

Farmers Look
TO
Your Interest.
We are now prepared to furnish the farmers of Shenandoah county, phosphates as low in prices as according to quality or analysis as any other agent in the county. We can furnish farmers with

OBER'S PHOSPHATE
Offers Analyzed 641 with interest. 100 lbs. 40 " 25 " 10 " 5 " 2 " 1 " 1/2 " 1/4 " 1/8 " 1/16 " 1/32 " 1/64 " 1/128 " 1/256 " 1/512 " 1/1024 " 1/2048 " 1/4096 " 1/8192 " 1/16384 " 1/32768 " 1/65536 " 1/131072 " 1/262144 " 1/524288 " 1/1048576 " 1/2097152 " 1/4194304 " 1/8388608 " 1/16777216 " 1/33554432 " 1/67108864 " 1/134217728 " 1/268435456 " 1/536870912 " 1/1073741824 " 1/2147483648 " 1/4294967296 " 1/8589934592 " 1/17179869184 " 1/34359738368 " 1/68719476736 " 1/137438953472 " 1/274877906944 " 1/549755813888 " 1/1099511627776 " 1/2199023255552 " 1/4398046511104 " 1/8796093022208 " 1/17592186044416 " 1/35184372088832 " 1/70368744177664 " 1/140737488355328 " 1/281474976710656 " 1/562949953421312 " 1/1125899906842624 " 1/2251799813685248 " 1/4503599627370496 " 1/9007199254740992 " 1/18014398509481984 " 1/36028797018963968 " 1/72057594037927936 " 1/144115188075855872 " 1/288230376151711744 " 1/576460752303423488 " 1/1152921504606846976 " 1/2305843009213693952 " 1/4611686018427387904 " 1/9223372036854775808 " 1/18446744073709551616 " 1/36893488147419103232 " 1/73786976294838206464 " 1/147573952589676412928 " 1/295147905179352825856 " 1/590295810358705651712 " 1/1180591620717411303424 " 1/2361183241434822606848 " 1/4722366482869645213696 " 1/9444732965739290427392 " 1/18889465931478580854784 " 1/37778931862957161709568 " 1/75557863725914323419136 " 1/151115727451828646838272 " 1/302231454903657293676544 " 1/604462909807314587353088 " 1/1208925819614629174706176 " 1/2417851639229258349412352 " 1/4835703278458516698824704 " 1/9671406556917033397649408 " 1/19342813113834066795298816 " 1/38685626227668133590597632 " 1/77371252455336267181195264 " 1/154742504910672534362390528 " 1/309485009821345068724781056 " 1/618970019642690137449562112 " 1/1237940039285380274899124224 " 1/2475880078570760549798248448 " 1/4951760157141521099596496896 " 1/9903520314283042199192993792 " 1/19807040628566084398385987584 " 1/39614081257132168796771975168 " 1/79228162514264337593543950336 " 1/158456325028528675187087900672 " 1/316912650057057350374175801344 " 1/633825300114114700748351602688 " 1/1267650600228229401496703205376 " 1/2535301200456458802993406410752 " 1/5070602400912917605986812821504 " 1/10141204801825835211973625643008 " 1/20282409603651670423947251286016 " 1/40564819207303340847894502572032 " 1/81129638414606681695789005144064 " 1/162259276829213363391778010288128 " 1/324518553658426726783556020576256 " 1/649037107316853453567112041152512 " 1/1298074214633706907134224082305024 " 1/2596148429267413814268448164610048 " 1/5192296858534827628536896329220096 " 1/10384593717069655257073792658440192 " 1/20769187434139310514147585316880384 " 1/41538374868278621028295170633760768 " 1/83076749736557242056590341267521536 " 1/166153499473114484113180682535043072 " 1/332306998946228968226361365070086144 " 1/664613997892457936452722730140172288 " 1/13292279957849158729054454602803456 " 1/26584559915698317458108909205606912 " 1/53169119831396634916217818411213824 " 1/106338239662793269832435636822427648 " 1/212676479325586539664871273644855296 " 1/425352958651173079329742547289710592 " 1/850705917302346158659485094579421184 " 1/1701411834604692317318970189158842368 " 1/3402823669209384634637940378317684736 " 1/6805647338418769269275880756635369472 " 1/13611294676837538538551761513270738944 " 1/27222589353675077077103523026541477888 " 1/54445178707350154154207046053082955776 " 1/108890357414700308308414092106165911552 " 1/217780714829400616616828184212331823104 " 1/435561429658801233233656368424663646208 " 1/871122859317602466467312736849327292416 " 1/1742245718635204932934625473698545848832 " 1/3484491437270409865869250947397091697664 " 1/6968982874540819731738501894794183395328 " 1/1393796574908163946347700378958376670656 " 1/2787593149816327892695400757916753341312 " 1/5575186299632655785390801515833506682624 " 1/11150372599265311570781603031667013365248 " 1/22300745198530623141563206063334026730496 " 1/44601490397061246283126412126668053460992 " 1/89202980794122492566252824253336106921984 " 1/178405961588244985132505648506672213843968 " 1/356811923176489970265011297013344427687936 " 1/71362384635297994053002259402668885537584 " 1/142724769270595988106004518805337771075168 " 1/285449538541191976212009037610675542150336 " 1/570899077082383952424018075221351084300672 " 1/1141798154164767904848036150442702168601344 " 1/2283596308329535809696072300885404337202688 " 1/4567192616659071619392144601770808674405376 " 1/9134385233318143238784289203541617348810752 " 1/18268770466636286477568578407083234697621504 " 1/36537540933272572955137156814166469395243008 " 1/73075081866545145910274313628332938790486016 " 1/14615016373309029182054862725666587758097232 " 1/29230032746618058364109725451333175561514464 " 1/58460065493236116728219450902666351123028928 " 1/116920130986472233456438901805332702246057856 " 1/233840261972944466912877803610665404482115136 " 1/467680523945888933825755607221330808964230272 " 1/935361047891777867651511214442661617928460544 " 1/1870722095783555735303022428885323235856921088 " 1/3741444191567111470606044857770646471713842176 " 1/7482888383134222941212089715541292943427684352 " 1/14965776766268445882424179431082585886855368704 " 1/29931553532536891764848358862165171773710737408 " 1/59863107065073783529696717724330343547421474816 " 1/1197262141301475670593934354486606870948429963328 " 1/2